Oh no so sorry!

Can you hit up the gym to lift weights at lunch? My beau swears by that. When his back tightens up, the only cure is lifting weights.

Between your backache and my toothache (since Thursday – ugh – finally got an appointment today) we are a great team!

Dear Holly:

Dear Holly:

How about replacing (EPA with 40CFR131)? See below.

Replace
U.S. EPA-approved site-specific water column criterion element
With
Site specific water column criterion element established under the provisions of 40CFR131

And replace

Hi Pete, I hope all is well!

I know your plate is full so I'll be brief. Per our conversation on Monday, attached for your review are EPA's recommended revisions to footnote 4 in Table 1 and footnote 17 in Table 2. Please let me know if you have any comments or questions.

Also, I'm putting together a summary of the discussion on Monday with NDDEQ and Office of Water. I'll send it to you once I'm done to make sure I accurately captured the discussion. I intended to send it today, but work keeps getting in the way LOL...

Thanks so much! Talk with you soon.
